E. E. Holcomb, successor to Geo. V. Reid, has an advertisement in the EXPOSITOR and it will be of interest to our readers to peruse the same.

Owing to an unusual rush of job work we are a little late in getting the EXPOSITOR before our readers for which we ask their indulgence.

Miss Persie Johnson, of Marlette, has been here the past week the guest of W. L. Ellis and wife. Her nephew, Master Chas. Ellis, has been visiting her.

We made an error in the cider mill item last week. It should have read "Samuel" instead of Seth Ludington. He will have bills out this week advertising his mill.

There is no drink quite so delicious and sparkling, pure and wholesome, as that made from Hires' Improved Root Beer Packages. Did you ever try it? It is one of the good things of this life.

A large number of Patrons of Industry from the lodges around here attended the pic-nic given in Hodgins' grove yesterday. Able speakers were present and a very enjoyable time was had, although the weather was cold.

Three reasons why Mack's fair ball will be a success: First, because he can accommodate 200 couples; second, because he has secured the best music that can be obtained; third, because he will furnish an elegant supper.

Only one more week and fair time.

B. R. Noble is in Missouri this week looking after some land he has there.

Walter Snyder, of Clare, is visiting his uncle, John Stanly, at Maple Valley.

Chas. Ferguson left Monday morning for Stittsville where he has secured a situation. We wish him success.

Levi Morrill, Jr., Robt. H. Menerey, Jas. Wallace, J. B. Paisley and J. C. Holden took in the Exposition at Detroit this week.

Benj. Evans has been doing a good business in shipping stock this season. He is a good buyer and pays all an animal is worth.

Roy Francis has returned from Chichigo where he went last week to accept a position. His field of labor will be in Huron county for a time.

John Cheney, one of the well-to-do farmers of this section expects soon to leave for England where a fortune is left him by some rich relative.

Miss Aggie Menerey has been engaged to teach in the Drennan district this year. She is now taking Miss Mary Brown's place in the school here.

John D. Jones left Tuesday morning for Easy station where he bought a large lot of lumber. Mr. Jones is enjoying a good trade in lumber.

Chas. Parker threshed 1,100 bushels of grain for Edward Richardson in 10 hours. Charley's "Old Agitator" takes the cake for fast and good work.

R. T. Willoughby, who taught the Brockway school last year, has been engaged to "teach the young idea how to shoot" in the Carless school this year.

We received a communication signed subscriber last week but owing to no other name being attached the article found its way to the waste basket.

James Brown and daughters Mary and Tena of this place and Elder J. H. Paton and daughter Nora, of Almont, left here Monday to spend the week in Detroit.

Rev. S. N. Hill will give a lecture to the young people of this village on next Sabbath evening at the M. E. church at 7 o'clock. Subject: "The Stairway of Manhood."

John O. Grinnell has completed his season's work as leader of the Oak Bluff orchestra and returned home last week. He looks as though the lake breeze agreed with him.

A dance was held in the town hall at Peck last Tuesday evening for the benefit of the young ladies band of that place. A large number were present and a big time enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Omer is visiting friends in Detroit this week. Mrs. Bears accompanied her as far as Detroit where she will visit a few days before going over to Canada to visit old friends.

Howard Holmes, of Memphis, was in the village the latter part of last week visiting his old school mates and friends. He has been engaged to teach the Brockway school this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenks, together with the latter's two sons Frank and George Yokum, of Port Huron, have been the guests of Mrs. Caroline Holden, Jas. Holden and family, and others in this vicinity.

Mrs. Geo. Tool and Miss Emma Major, of Pickering, Ont., who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Collins, of North Speaker for two weeks returned home last Monday. They report a very wet harvest in their locality.

A grand fair ball will be given at the Cavanagh House, Emmet, Friday evening, Sept. 20. Music by Jackson & Ard's full string band. Bill $1.25. Mr. Cavanagh will spare no pains to make this occasion a pleasant one.

Mrs. G. A. Perkins has sold her stock of millinery and fancy goods and will go out of business. She expects her husband back from Dakota in about one week when they will make arrangements to move out there and reside for the future.

Chas. Parker threshed for Rufus Remington Wednesday of last week, 300 bushels of wheat in 10 hours. Our informant says that more wheat might have been turned out but the men on the stack could not put away the large amount of straw that came from the separator.

One of the F. & P. M. R'y officials asked us to call the attention of those who congregate about the station and blockade the platform so that passengers cannot pass from one car to the other, that if the practice is continued some action will be taken toward abaiting the nuisance.

Geo. W. Bell has disposed of his spotted ponies to a Detroit party and purchased a mate for his bay trotter. Mr. Bell has added a new light sample wagon with top, and now has the best equipped livery this side of Detroit. His prices are reasonable, and those wanting a fine turnout will do well to give him a call.

Wilson Vanslyke, while feeding a separator at Jason Clark's Thursday last, received a bad gash in the back of his right hand. It seems that Addie Clark, who was wielding the band knife missed the band of the sheaf the first cut and made another attempt drawing the blade of the knife across the back of Wilson's hand.

The old saying, "A friend in need is a friend indeed," has occurred to us with peculiar force many times during our past, but particularly during the past few days. It is with a grateful heart we thank sincerely the family of Thos. Rapley for their kindness and benevolence to ye editor and his household, and assure them that it will not be forgotten.

FOR SALE.—The undersigned offers for sale at a great sacrifice, his fruit evaporating works located at Armada, Mich., or will sell the machinery for removal at a bargain. Would consider offer to exchange for real estate. Reason for selling: Poor health and removal south. Call on or address without delay, L. GRANGER, Armada, Mich.

Frank Landro, Edward Hopkins and J. A. Menzies have been "setting up" the cigars the past week—cause three young sons. Sure sign of war.

A sample street lamp has been secured and placed on the corner opposite Darcy's blacksmith shop where it was lighted for the first time Monday evening. If we only had enough of them to make a showing on Main street the citizens would be well pleased.

The lower part of W. N. McKenna's new brick is complete with the exception of the shelving and counters. When this is done J. D. McKeith, of Speaker, will fill the same jam full of goods and endeavor to do a good business on the merits of his merchandise and fair prices charged.

A very heavy rain and wind storm visited this section Sunday afternoon and evening. Fences were blown down and trees uprooted. On Wm. Hodgins' farm it blew a regular hurricane, piling his crop of peas in the fence corners, and he was kept busy for two or three days getting them out.

A number of Miss Minnie Barnum's intimate friends gave her a surprise at the residence of E. R. Beecher last Friday evening, and a very pleasant time was enjoyed. Miss Barnum was the recipient of a fine gold-handled umbrella with her name engraved thereon, also a music folder, which she prizes very highly.

E. F. Law, secretary of the county board of school examiners, has prepared plans for building country school houses. These plans include heating, ventilating, lighting, blackboards, seating, etc., and will be kept as the permanent property of the office. Mr. Law desires to meet and confer with school boards who expect to build or make repairs to old buildings.

Frank, son of Amherst Eastman, of Peck, who left home one year ago for Ashladd, Wis., to try the climate of that country for the benefit of his health, died on Saturday, Sept 24, cause consumption. His remains were brought home for interment. The following relatives of deceased attended the funeral at Peck: Charles Eastman and family, Thomas Bennatts and family, David Doe and wife. The family have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood in their sad bereavement.

The school board held a meeting at James Brown's office last Friday evening. Present—James Brown, D. G. Williams, A. W. Ferguson and Hiram Allen. The officers elected for the ensuing year are A. W. Ferguson, director; Hiram Allen, moderator; W. W. Grinnel, assessor. W. D. Wear sent in his resignation as janitor which was accepted, and it was decided to hire Mr. Fry for one month at $15, in his stead. The question of a well was brought up and referred to a committee. No further business appearing the board adjourned.

Friday morning last ye editor accepted an invitation from Roadmaster Brown of the F. & P. M. R'y to take a run down to the bridge now in course of construction on the new line. About 10 o'clock a. m. we boarded the directors car "Peggy" and were soon on our way for the bridge. Arriving there we found the foundation and commencement of a fine structure. The masonry is nearly complete. The approaches are complete, also the abutments. The bridge will be of the trestle work variety with spans 130 feet long. The entire length will be 600 feet.

Saturday morning last about six o'clock the sluggards of this village were aroused from the soft aluring embrace of Morpheus by horrible cries that betokened mortal agony. Upon investigation it was found that a horse owned and driven by Jacob Vancleif had been taken with a sudden longing for the home pasture and was "getting there" with all possible haste. The horse was hitched to a cart in which were Mr. and Mrs. Vancleif and through the breaking of the lines these parties were the involuntary participants in an early morning runaway. Fortunately the horse was stopped before any one was injured.

Wm. H. Foster left last Tuesday morning on a visit to his home at Charlotte, Mich. He will also visit friends at Jackson and Lansing, and "take in" the Exposition at Detroit. The evening previous to his departure a number of his friends met at the residence of Miss Blanche Manning and thence proceeded to Michael's hall where several hours were passed in a very pleasant manner in dancing and other social amusements. The party dispersed at midnight after wishing Will a pleasant journey and safe return. Will is a general favorite in our village, and there will be several sad hearts in Yale till his smiling countenance is seen once more in our midst.

The examination of Alexander Wiley, charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm, less than the crime of murder, upon the person of Mrs. Carter, came off last Friday and Saturday before Justice W. N. McKenna. E. H. Drake conducted the examination for the people, C. A. Hovey, of Port Huron, appearing for the defendant. Two days were consumed in taking the testimony of several witnesses, yet no positive light was thrown on the matter. The parties who saw the man who accosted Mrs. Carter at the bridge on the night of the 21st of August, swore that he had on a dark hat but that his general appearance was that of Wiley's. Others who saw Wiley at the lawn that night swore that he had on a light fawn colored hat. The proposals made by Wiley to the young ladies that night were not exactly appropriate for a married man, but there was nothing to connect him with any criminal act or intent. Again there was nothing in the testimony to connect the person who appeared at the bridge with the one who committed the assault. It almost seems as though the miscreant who committed this outrage is going to escape the punishment he so richly deserves.
